

ANOTHER WAY TO ENJOY NORFOLK'S SEALS.

If walking is a problem, an excellent alternative, is a seal boat trip from Morston Quay or Blakeney where passengers get close-up views of grey and harbour (common) seals.

Beans Boats are equipped to take wheelchair-bound passengers, and the boats run all year, although trips are weather dependant.

For further information visit the websites of Beans Boats or Bishop's Boats

